WE GATHER

“The land upon which we gather is part of the traditional territory of the Lenne-Lenape, called ‘Lenapehoking.’ The Lenape People lived in harmony with one another upon this territory for thousands of years. During the colonial era and early federal period, many were removed west and north, but some also remain among the continuing historical tribal communities of the region: The Nanticoke Lenne-Lenape Tribal Nation; the Ramapough Lenape Nation; and the Powhatan Renape Nation, The Nanticoke of Millsboro Delaware, and the Lenape of Cheswold Delaware.

We acknowledge the Lenne-Lenape as the original people of this land and their continuing relationship with their territory. In our acknowledgment of the continued presence of Lenape people in their homeland, we affirm the aspiration of the great Lenape Chief Tamanend, that there be harmony between the indigenous people of this land and the descendants of the immigrants to this land, “as long as the rivers and creeks flow, and the sun, moon, and stars shine.”

GATHERING SONG

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
thy justice like mountains high soaring above
thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.

God Comes to Us

God comes to us on winter’s night,
in baby’s breath, by firelight,
God comes to us on a star.
God comes to us amidst our fears,
unspoken joys, unending tears,
God comes to us, where we are.

*Vos sos el Dios de los pobres
(You Are the God of the People)*

You are the God of the people,
the God who’s human and simple
the God that sweats in the city your face is tired and weathered that’s why I can talk with you
the way I talk with my people,
you are the blue collar worker
and Christ is a worker too.

You are selling mangoes in the corner,
hoping for enough to feed your own.
You’re the Uber driver working night shifts and then serving coffee in Starbucks.

You're in constant fear of being deported –
what will happen to your children, then?
You're the hijab-wearing Muslim woman daring to be free with every step.

You're the ex-convicted felon hoping for a job that never, ever comes You're the kid that sleeps on steps of churches and yet, still believes that there is hope.
You are battling cancer with defiance,
your insurance makes it a worse hell.
You're the common Joe, the average Mary just trying to survive with each paycheck.

WELCOME

WE PROCLAIM

CALL TO LISTEN

Open the Eyes of Our Hearts

Open the eyes of our hearts now,
open the eyes of our hearts
We want to see you.
We want to see you.

Open the eyes of our hearts, now,
open the eyes of our hearts
We want to see you.
We want to see you.

To see you high and lifted up shining in the light of your glory.
Pour out Your power and love
As we sing holy, holy, holy,
holy, holy, holy –
we want to see you

To see your face in every child –
everyone a part of your story.
Help us to walk in your light
as we sing holy, holy, holy,
holy, holy, holy –
we want to see you

LESSONS

Excerpts from Psalms 10, 42, 103, 137, 146 & 150
(adapted from The New Revised Standard Version and The Inclusive Bible)

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord, O my soul! I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God all my life long.

Why, O God! Why do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble? In arrogance the wicked persecute the poor – And yet, their ways prosper at all times; and as for their foes, they scoff at them. They think in their heart, “We shall not be moved; throughout all generations we shall not meet adversity.”

Their mouths are filled with cursing and deceit and oppression; under their tongues are mischief and iniquity. They sit in ambush in the villages; in hiding places they murder the innocent.

Bless HaShem*, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless God's holy name. Bless HaShem, O my soul, and do not forget all his benefits – who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the Pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle'

I say to God, my rock, 'Why have you forgotten me? Why must I walk about mournfully because the enemy oppresses me?' As with a deadly wound in my body, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me continually, 'Where is your God?'

God sets the prisoners free; God opens the eyes of the blind. God lifts up those who are bowed down; God loves the righteous. God watches over the strangers; God upholds the orphan and the widow, but brings to ruin the way of the wicked.

Remember, O Lord, against the Edomites the day of Jerusalem's fall, how they said, 'Tear it down! Tear it down! Down to its foundations!'

O daughter Babylon, you devastator! Happy shall they be who pay you back what you have done to us! Happy shall they be who take your little ones and dash them against the rock!

Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; I know I'll praise God once again, my Deliverance and my God.

The Word of Life.
Thanks be to God.

WE ARE THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE

The Church of the Village is a progressive and radically inclusive community that is committed to dismantling racism, sexism, and all forms of oppression. The foundation for all of our theology and practice is Jesus' instruction to "love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself."

We seek to build a world overflowing with justice, mercy, kindness, and compassion.

Our church building stands on ancestral lands of the Lenape people. The colonizers who stripped Indigenous peoples of their lands used Christianity to justify their actions. We are beneficiaries of a history of appropriation, slavery, and forced migration. We repent and commit to being a community that seeks to repair the harm done to Indigenous peoples and build new pathways to love and justice.

We celebrate human diversity – welcoming people of every color, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. We strongly support environmental justice and stewardship of the Earth. We believe many roads lead to God and are respectful of a diversity of spiritual paths. We believe our community flourishes with many points of view, opportunities for creative expression, and participatory worship.

A WORK IN PROGRESS

A new worship series; Sundays, January 8 – February 19, 2023

Last Fall we went “Back to Basics” and talked about some of the elements at the core of our communal spiritual journey. This Winter we’re creating space for each community member to develop their own “basics.” Each Sunday, we’ll ask questions like, “Who am I?” “What values are important to me?” “How do I live intentionally in the world?” There are no right or wrong answers! We’ll take time together to reflect on the concepts raised, as we deepen our personal and communal spiritual lives.

TOGETHER IN PRAYER

Resumes on WEDNESDAY mornings; 9:00am beginning February 1.

Our weekly prayer group includes an inspirational reading, time to support one another, and prayers for ourselves, others, and events in the world. ## CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE COVID-19 PROTECTION POLICY

Updated September 23, 2022

From the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic, The Church of the Village has been diligent about protecting everyone connected to our church community. We have followed guidelines offered by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), the City and State of New York, as well as those shared by the NY Conference of the United Methodist Church. Our leadership has stayed on top of new developments and adjusted our policies periodically to fit evolving conditions.

We recognize that for our members, supporters, visitors, and staff who are in proximity to New York City or visit our building, the status of the pandemic has shifted dramatically. The rates of infection, hospitalizations, and especially deaths have fallen to very low levels. This does not mean they cannot go back up and we will continue to monitor the situation. In addition, mask requirements have been lifted for most public spaces, including public transportation in NYC.

Therefore, we have decided to lift our own mask requirement for entry to our church building. This applies to staff as well as members and to groups that rent or use space in our building.

We continue to strongly recommend that everyone be vaccinated and boosted to the highest extent for which you are eligible. The most recent bivalent booster is available to anyone age 12 or older (Pfizer) or 18 and older (Moderna). The bivalent boosters protect against the original Covid-19 virus strain and provide stronger protection against Omicron, which is the most widespread and transmissible variant. To find a location and schedule your vaccination or booster anywhere in the United States, click here! This is not for your protection only, but for the well-being of our community, our city, and the country.

Also, we strongly encourage those persons at higher risk for infection or hospitalization – especially those with underlying health conditions – to continue to take all appropriate safety measures like masking and social distancing. All of us need to self-monitor for symptoms and follow CDC guidance about self-isolation and testing (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html>).
