WE GATHER

“The land upon which we gather is part of the traditional territory of the Lenni-Lenape, called ‘Lenapehoking.’ The Lenape People lived in harmony with one another upon this territory for thousands of years. During the colonial era and early federal period, many were removed west and north, but some also remain among the continuing historical tribal communities of the region: The Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape Tribal Nation; the Ramapough Lenape Nation; and the Powhatan Lenape Nation, The Nanticoke of Millsboro Delaware, and the Lenape of Cheswold Delaware. We acknowledge the Lenni-Lenape as the original people of this land and their continuing relationship with their territory. In our acknowledgment of the continued presence of Lenape people in their homeland, we affirm the aspiration of the great Lenape Chief Tamanend, that there be harmony between the indigenous people of this land and the descendants of the immigrants to this land, “as long as the rivers and creeks flow, and the sun, moon, and stars shine.”

GATHERING SONGS

*Heleluyan

Heleluyan, we are singing. Hele, heleluyan.
Heleluyan, now and always: Hele, heleluyan.

People everywhere shall sing now and always: Hele, heleluyan //

People far and near will join the chorus: Hele, heleluyan //

“Heleluyan” comes to us from the people that are commonly called “Creek Indians.” They call themselves “Muskokulke,” or Muscogee. The Muscogee people were originally from Alabama and Georgia. Most of the Muscogee people were forcibly removed to Indian Territory (now Oklahoma) by the federal government in the 1830s during the Trail of Tears. Heleluyan is one of the Trail of Tears songs.*

When the Spirit in Me

When the spirit in me sees the spirit in you (2x)
It’s so easy, so easy, so easy, so easy to love

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Psalms 78:1-7

My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth!
I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden from of old—
the things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.
We won't hide them from our children;
we will tell the next generation.
We'll tell them of your praiseworthy deeds, YHWH,
your power, and the wonders you have performed.
You set up statutes for our forebears, and established the Law,
which you commanded our ancestors to teach their children
so the next generation would know them
— children yet to be born—
and as they come up, they would tell their own children.
Then they would put their trust in you and not forget your deeds,
but keep your commandments—

Matthew 25:1-13 (The Inclusive Bible)

“Then again, the kingdom of heaven could be likened to ten attendants who took their lamps and went to meet the bridal party.

Five of them were wise; five were foolish.

When the foolish ones took their lamps, they didn’t take any oil with them, but the wise ones took enough oil to keep their lamps burning.

The bridal party was delayed, so they all fell asleep.

“At midnight there was a cry:

‘Here comes the bridal party! Let’s go out to meet them!’

Then all the attendants rose and trimmed their lamps.

The foolish ones said to the wise,

‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’

But the wise replied,

‘Perhaps there won’t be enough for us;

run to the dealers and get some more for yourselves.’

“While the foolish ones went to buy more oil, the bridal party arrived; and those who were ready went to the marriage feast with them, and the door was shut.

When the foolish attendants returned, they pleaded to be let in.

The doorkeeper replied,

‘The truth is, I don’t know you.’

“So stay awake, for you don’t know the day or the hour.

The Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

Ceaseless Praise

Take my life, and let it be consecrated unto thee.
Take my moments and my days; let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of your love.
Take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.

*Now I give my life to Thee
Yours forevermore to be*

Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use every power as you shall choose.
Take my will, and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is your own; it shall be your royal throne.

WE ARE THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE

The Church of the Village is a progressive and radically inclusive community that is committed to dismantling racism, sexism, and all forms of oppression. The foundation for all of our theology and practice is Jesus’ instruction to “love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself.”

We seek to build a world overflowing with justice, mercy, kindness, and compassion.

Our church building stands on ancestral lands of the Lenape people. The colonizers who stripped Indigenous peoples of their lands used Christianity to justify their actions. We are beneficiaries of a history of appropriation, slavery, and forced migration. We repent and commit to being a community that seeks to repair the harm done to Indigenous peoples and build new pathways to love and justice.

We celebrate human diversity – welcoming people of every color, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. We strongly support environmental justice and stewardship of the Earth. We believe many roads lead to God and are respectful of a diversity of spiritual paths. We believe our community flourishes with many points of view, opportunities for creative expression, and participatory worship.

UBUNTU: THE ART OF LIVING TOGETHER

a new worship series

"Ubuntu" is a South African term often translated as, "I am because we are." It connotes an interdependence on one another, an existence that is made possible by others in the community. In this worship series, we'll explore how our lives can be enriched in a loving, Christ-centered community where we are seen, cherished, called, and challenged.

Join us this Fall as we grow toward a deeper sense of knowing and belonging to God and each other. For this series, we're bringing back topical conversations after the Sunday service! Join us in-person or online to discuss the theme of each week's worship and preaching.
