About Pride and Solidarity

WE GATHER

“The land upon which we gather is part of the traditional territory of the Lenni-Lenape, called ‘Lenapehoking.’ The Lenape People lived in harmony with one another upon this territory for thousands of years. During the colonial era and early federal period, many were removed west and north, but some also remain among the continuing historical tribal communities of the region: The Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape Tribal Nation; the Ramapough Lenape Nation; and the Powhatan Lenape Nation, The Nanticoke of Millsboro Delaware, and the Lenape of Cheswold Delaware.

We acknowledge the Lenni-Lenape as the original people of this land and their continuing relationship with their territory. In our acknowledgment of the continued presence of Lenape people in their homeland, we affirm the aspiration of the great Lenape Chief Tamanend, that there be harmony between the indigenous people of this land and the descendants of the immigrants to this land, “as long as the rivers and creeks flow, and the sun, moon, and stars shine.”

GATHERING SONG

I See You – Hineini

The musical score is written on two staves in 3/4 time with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody is simple and repetitive. The first staff contains the lyrics: "I see you, I see you, I see you. I". The second staff contains: "you. Hi - nei - ni, hi - nei - ni, hi - nei - ni. Hi - ni." There are first and second endings marked with "1." and "2." above the notes.

WELCOME & OPENING PRAYER

WE PROCLAIM

READINGS

“Sometimes it takes more than shouting it to show your pride. It takes more than a sign, a fabulous outfit, or a month of parades. Pride has to resonate from within; shine out to everyone around you. It has to mean something to you and only you first before you announce it to the world.”

– Solange Nicole

“We are made for goodness. We are made for love. We are made for friendliness. We are made for togetherness. We are made for all of the beautiful things that you and I know. We are made to tell the world that there are no outsiders. All are welcome: black, white, red, yellow, rich, poor, educated, not educated, male, female, gay, straight, all, all, all. We all belong to this family, this human family, God’s family.”

– Desmond Tutu, Nobel Peace Prize winner

Together in Pride. What does that mean? In October of 1990 at the International Association of Gay Pride Coordinators Conference, I voted for that slogan as the International Theme mostly because it sounded better to me than any of the other suggested ideas. Over the past nine months, I hope I have discovered a deeper meaning behind that phrase.

To me, Together in Pride means that every person who considers himself a part of the Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual community will be given the opportunity to fully self-express their pride or self-respect without fear of reprisal either from within our communities or from society at large. Whether Black or White, Male or Female, HIV+ or -, Drag or Leather, we must never judge that one person's sense of Pride or self-respect is any less valid than another's.

I believe it is time to set the past aside and to create a new vision of the future. One that is inclusive rather than exclusive. We must each, in our own way, set aside the prejudices we have acquired whether they be racial, gender based or other. By working Together in Pride we can create a community that is supportive and nurturing for all of its diverse elements.

– Gary Wells, President, Milwaukee Lesbian & Gay Pride Committee (1991)

OFFERTORY

*Dios-familia

Every time we get together, it just happens once again,
the same thing Mary experienced with her cousin Isabel;
as soon as they saw each other, something happened to their faith—it became a son of prophecy, almost a chamamé.

*Truly God is Dios-familia, God is love in Trinity
We are branches of the same tree, we are God's community.
Our God is Father, Mother, we are siblings at the Feast
This is why we come together, sharing in God's jubilee.*

Every time we get together, it just happens once again:
the fulfillment of the promise from the Man of Nazareth —
where two, three, or more do gather, and you do it in my name,
I will be forever present, I'll be with you till the end.

Every time we get together, it just happens once again, the same thing people experienced on that great Pentecost day — as they gathered all together, in one spirit and one faith;
tongues of fire came upon them,
they rejoiced and shared their faith.

*Dios-familia: God is a family (Trinity)

Chamamé: A form of popular cultural expression that is mainly practiced in the Corrientes province of Argentina. Its key components include a style of 'close embrace' dancing where participants hold each other chest to chest and follow the music without set choreography. The word "chamamé" comes from the Guaraní language and it means "rowdy party." Chamamé was inscribed in 2020 on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity of UNESCO.

WE ARE THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE

The Church of the Village is a progressive and radically inclusive community that is committed to dismantling racism, sexism, and all forms of oppression. The foundation for all of our theology and practice is Jesus' instruction to "love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself."

We seek to build a world overflowing with justice, mercy, kindness, and compassion.

Our church building stands on ancestral lands of the Lenape people. The colonizers who stripped Indigenous peoples of their lands used Christianity to justify their actions. We are beneficiaries of a history of appropriation, slavery, and forced migration. We repent and commit to being a community that seeks to repair the harm done to Indigenous peoples and build new pathways to love and justice.

We celebrate human diversity – welcoming people of every color, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. We strongly support environmental justice and stewardship of the Earth. We believe many roads lead to God and are respectful of a diversity of spiritual paths. We believe our community flourishes with many points of view, opportunities for creative expression, and participatory worship.

CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE COVID-19 PROTECTION POLICY

Updated September 23, 2022

From the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic, The Church of the Village has been diligent about protecting everyone connected to our church community. We have followed guidelines offered by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), the City and State of New York, as well as those shared by the NY Conference of the United Methodist Church. Our leadership has stayed on top of new developments and adjusted our policies periodically to fit evolving conditions.

We recognize that for our members, supporters, visitors, and staff who are in proximity to New York City or visit our building, the status of the pandemic has shifted dramatically. The rates of infection, hospitalizations, and especially deaths have fallen to very low levels. This does not mean they cannot go back up and we will continue to monitor the situation. In addition, mask requirements have been lifted for most public spaces, including public transportation in NYC.

Therefore, we have decided to lift our own mask requirement for entry to our church building. This applies to staff as well as members and to groups that rent or use space in our building.

We continue to strongly recommend that everyone be vaccinated and boosted to the highest extent for which you are eligible. The most recent bivalent booster is available to anyone age 12 or older (Pfizer) or 18 and older (Moderna). The bivalent boosters protect against the original Covid-19 virus strain and provide stronger protection against Omicron, which is the most widespread and transmissible variant. To find a location and schedule your vaccination or booster anywhere in the United States, click here! This is not for your protection only, but for the well-being of our community, our city, and the country.

Also, we strongly encourage those persons at higher risk for infection or hospitalization – especially those with underlying health conditions – to continue to take all appropriate safety measures like masking and social distancing. All of us need to self-monitor for symptoms and follow CDC guidance about self-isolation and testing (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html>).
