Blessing Our Thirst

WE GATHER

“The land upon which we gather is part of the traditional territory of the Lenni-Lenape, called ‘Lenapehoking.’ The Lenape People lived in harmony with one another upon this territory for thousands of years. During the colonial era and early federal period, many were removed west and north, but some also remain among the continuing historical tribal communities of the region: The Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape Tribal Nation; the Ramapough Lenape Nation; and the Powhatan Lenape Nation, The Nanticoke of Millsboro Delaware, and the Lenape of Cheswold Delaware.

We acknowledge the Lenni-Lenape as the original people of this land and their continuing relationship with their territory. In our acknowledgment of the continued presence of Lenape people in their homeland, we affirm the aspiration of the great Lenape Chief Tamanend, that there be harmony between the indigenous people of this land and the descendants of the immigrants to this land, “as long as the rivers and creeks flow, and the sun, moon, and stars shine.”

GATHERING SONG

Holy Spirit, come, Holy Spirit, come now, come now //

May the sweetness of your mercy and grace bring us true wisdom right here in this place.
Show a glimmer of the depth of God's will.
Bring understanding; God's plan be fulfilled

As we come together, God's love is shown.
Serving each other, God's presence is known.
May this goodness be the glory of God –
Hearts overflowing with wonder and awe.

WELCOME & OPENING PRAYER

WE PROCLAIM

CALL TO LISTEN

Wade in the Water

Wade in the water
Wade in the water, children,
wade in the water,
God's gonna trouble the water

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Psalm 63:1-5 (New International Version)

You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek you; I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you,
in a dry and parched land where there is no water.

I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.
Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you. I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands. I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods;
with singing lips my mouth will praise you.

Matthew 5:1-10 (New International Version)

A reading from the Gospel of Jesus Christ as recorded by Matthew “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

The Word of Life.
Thanks be to God.

OFFERTORY

GRATEFUL RESPONSE

For One Great Peace

This thread I weave, this step I dance, this pot I shape, this fire I light,
this check I write, this march I join,
this stone I carve, this ball I bounce,
this fence I leap, this bone I knit,
this faith I state, this truth I sign,
this nail I drive, this pearl I string,— this seed I nurse, this rift I mend,— this is small part, in one small place,— this flag I wave, this note I sing, this child I raise, this earth I tend,
of one heart's beat for one great Peace.

WE ARE SENT INTO THE WORLD

WE ARE THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE

The Church of the Village is a progressive and radically inclusive community that is committed to dismantling racism, sexism, and all forms of oppression. The foundation for all of our theology and practice is Jesus' instruction to "love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself."

We seek to build a world overflowing with justice, mercy, kindness, and compassion.

Our church building stands on ancestral lands of the Lenape people. The colonizers who stripped Indigenous peoples of their lands used Christianity to justify their actions. We are beneficiaries of a history of appropriation, slavery, and forced migration. We repent and commit to being a community that seeks to repair the harm done to Indigenous peoples and build new pathways to love and justice.

We celebrate human diversity – welcoming people of every color, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. We strongly support environmental justice and stewardship of the Earth. We believe many roads lead to God and are respectful of a diversity of spiritual paths. We believe our community flourishes with many points of view, opportunities for creative expression, and participatory worship.
